A Most Valuable Agent.

The glycerine employed in Dr. Pierce's medicines greatly enhances the medicinal properties which it extracts from native medicinal roots and holds in solution much better than alcohol would. It also much better than alcohol would. It also possesses medicinal properties of its own, being a valuable demuleent, nutritive, antiseptic and antiferment. It adds greatly to the efficacy of the Black Cherrybark, Bloodroot, Golden Seal root, Stone root and Queen's root, contained in "Golden Medical Discovery" in subduing chronic, or lingering coughs, bronchial, throat and lung affections, for all of which these agents are recommended by standard medical authorities.

In all cases where there is a wasting ard medical authorities.

In all cases where there is a wasting away of flesh, loss of appetite, with weak stongeh, as in the early stages of consumption, there can be no doubt that glycerine lacts as a valuable nutritive and aids the toiden Seal root, Stone root, Queen's root and Black Cherrybark in promoting digestion and building up the flesh and strength, controlling the cough and bringing about a healthy condition of the whole system. Of course, it must not be explicated to work miracles. It will not cure you amption except in its earlier stages. It will cure you sumption except in its earlier stages. BLACK HAND MURDERS.

Murder as the climax of a series of will give the newly formed White Hand Society in Chicago its first opportunity to show its strength. Closely upon the receipt of several letters demanding money Joseph Concillo was shot down in the rear of his home Sunday night. Three shots were fired into his body at close range. Death was almost instantaneous. The murderer escaped.

The shooting followed, within a few hours, an attempt to murder Luciano Tavaselli and members of his family in their home. He, too, had received several letters demanding $500. Three shots were fired through the window of his acidity."

"Golden Medical Discovery" enriches and purifies the blood curing blocches, pimples, cruptions, scrotulous swellings and old sores, cillo was a young man of small means, but his uncle, Giuseppe Brunscato, is supposed to be well off, and the black-mailer had demanded that Concillo get $500 from his uncle and leave it in a $500 from his uncles and leave it in a certain place under penalty of death Previous demands had been made on Brunscato, and his house was dynamited last summer. The White Hand Society was organized last November to check the blackmailers. It was formed by professional and business men. Thenew organization announced that it would conduct a war of extermination against the Black Hand.

against the Black Hand. Six Italian members of the "Black Hand" made an unsuccessful attempt upon the life of Antonio De Salvo, a wealthy contractor of Pottsville, Pa., early yesterday morning. Armed with shot guns they surrounced De Salvo's home, and were forcing in the door when Joseph Riotto, a neighbor, fired on them with a shot gun. He was reloading his gun when a volley was fred by the as-sascies, and he fell to the ground mor-tally wounded, with his chest and head riddled with shot. De Salvo, on Fri-day, received a notice signed by the Black Hand threatening him with death riddled with shot. De Salvo, on Friday, received a notice signed by the Black Hand threatening him with death if he did not turn over $1,000 to two men whom he would find on a deserted section of road near Pottsville. He ignored the note, and since receiving it nored the note, and since receiving it has refused to leave the house.

Neglected Colds Threaten Life.

[From the Chicago Tribune.]
"Don't wiffs with a cold," is good advice for prudent men end women. I may be vital in the case of a child. Proper tood, good ventilation, and dry warm clothing are the proper safeguards against colds. It they are maintained brough the changeable weather of auslight or severe, the very best treatment but can be adopted is to give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is safe and sure. CHARGES AGAINST A JUDGE. As was stated in the Gazette the voters of Hampton, Phoebus and the little villsges along the end of the peninsula have started an agitation looking to the investigation of the character, integrity and moral finess of Judge J. W. G. Black-stone, of the Eleventh circuit. The resolutions ask that an investigation, with a view to impeachment, be instituted.

The charges contained in the request for the investigation are serious enough o warrant the General Assembly to direct that impeachment proceedings begin at once. The charges in the resolution are neglect of or official duty, incompe-tency and immorality. The charges do not come as a surprise to people who have been in touch with the affairs of the circuit or who have kept an eye on the work of the Supreme Court of the State when matters from the courts over which Judge Blackstone has presided have been reviewed. He has been reversed in a great number of cases.

During the Paviinic murder trial the judge is said to have gone to sleep on the bench and to have slept soundly, and that when the case was in progress and a question of law arose one of the officers of the court had to go to the beach and arouse the sleeping jurist.

At another time, during the trial of the Accomec riot cases, when he declincases of the three negro men who were accused of being the instigators of that affair, he referred to Governor Swanson by saying that it "was the act of s spectacular governor given to spontan-eous combustion."

He refused to allow the men to be taken to another county, and ridicaled the "boy soldiers" whom the governor sent over to preserve the peace and to

The tiger had been in a bad humor during most of the day, and when turned loose in the arena attacked the leopord, throwing it high in the air and alapping it savegely with his paws. The leopord to go the leopard dought desperately, but appeared to be no march for the tiger.

Animal Trainer Garstang tried to se, arate the enraged animals, but the tiger turned upon him and he had to flee for his life.

Finally the tiger got the leopard down and was tugging at its throat, when the apparently exhausted animal turned upon him and he had to flee for his life. slapping it savegely with his paws. The leopard fought desperately, but appeared to be no match for the tiger.

Finally the tiger got the leopard down and was tugging at its throat, when the apparently exhausted animal turned upon its back, with the tiger directly over it. With its hind feet it began clawing at the tiger's breast, and with every stroke the blood flowed in streams. In a few moments the claws of the lea threatening letters by the Black Hand pard had reached the vitals of the tiger. The tiger fell over on its side dead. The leopard is badly injured, but it is believed it will recover.
